

Seeking the Lord

#0 – Series Overview

What does it mean to “seek the Lord?”

What does the Word of God teach on this subject?

How do I begin cultivating the practice of seeking the Lord?

Why is this a critical practice in my Christian walk?

Growing in knowing God, intimacy with him, and the glorious transformation that this brings.

#1 – Break Up Your Fallowed Ground

This series begins with an honest examination of our heart's true state. Understanding the foundational truth that unless seed is sown on soft ground, the seed is going to produce nothing.

#2 – Ask, Seek, Knock

Seeking is not optional. Jesus teaches us to seek until we find. How often have we given up? We will look at some of the barriers to consistently seeking the things of God and the promises to those who persevere.

#3 – Transformed in the Secret Place

Have you read the Psalms and noticed how often they cry out about injustice, pain, suffering or difficulty? Have you noticed that they don't end the way they begin? There's a place of transformation for you.

#4 – Fullness of Joy

If you have found yourself to be without joy and passion, the truth is you are not seeking the Lord's presence. In His Presence, there is fullness of joy. We will look at how to breakthrough all oppression.

#5 – Worship & Revelation

Jesus often used creation to teach profound truths. We will examine how worship and revelation are meant to be inspired through creation. (Romans 1:20, Psalm 8)

#6 – To Know Him is Eternal Life

The apostle John writes that spiritual fathers are the ones who have, “Known him who is from the beginning.” Can you honestly say that you know Him? This is the eternal goal of maturity in the faith.
